

UC froze funds used to support the Black Student Union and its program closed down Monday.

A report on that incident has been completed, a spokesman said, but has not been released.

The report said that a .38 Smith & Wesson handgun was stolen from San Francisco.

And, authorities said, the gun had been purchased earlier this year at various East Bay Gun shops.