

Orleans.²⁸ It certified that Lee Harvey Oswald had been vaccinated for smallpox on June 8, 1963. This, too, was a forgery. The signature of "A. J. Hidell" was in the handwriting of Lee Harvey Oswald.²⁹ There is no "Dr. Hidell" licensed to practice medicine in Louisiana.³⁰ There is no post office box 30016 in the New Orleans Post Office but Oswald had rented post office box 30061 in New Orleans³¹ on June 3, 1963, listing Marina Oswald and A. J. Hidell as additional persons entitled to receive mail in the box.³² The New Orleans postal authorities had not discarded the portion of the application listing the names of those, other than the owner of the box, entitled to receive mail through the box. Expert testimony confirmed that the writing on this application was that of Lee Harvey Oswald.³³

Hidell's name on the post office box application was part of Oswald's use of a nonexistent Hidell to serve as president of the so-called New Orleans Chapter of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. (As discussed below in ch. VI, p. 292.) Marina Oswald testified that she first learned of Oswald's use of the fictitious name "Hidell" in connection with his pro-Castro activities in New Orleans.³⁴ According to her testimony, he compelled her to write the name "Hidell" on membership cards in the space designated for the signature of the "Chapter President."³⁵ The name "Hidell" was stamped on some of the "Chapter's" printed literature and on the membership application blanks.³⁶ Marina Oswald testified, "I knew there was no such organization. And I know Hidell is merely an altered Fidel, and I laughed at such foolishness."³⁷ Hidell was a fictitious president of an organization of which Oswald was the only member.³⁸

When seeking employment in New Orleans, Oswald listed a "Sgt. Robt. Hidell" as a reference on one job application³⁹ and "George Hidell" as a reference on another.⁴⁰ Both names were found to be fictitious.⁴¹ Moreover, the use of "Alek" as a first name for Hidell is a further link to Oswald because "Alek" was Oswald's nickname in Russia.⁴² Letters received by Marina Oswald from her husband signed "Alek" were given to the Commission.⁴³

Oswald's Palmprint on Rifle Barrel

Based on the above evidence, the Commission concluded that Oswald purchased the rifle found on the sixth floor of the Depository Building. Additional evidence of ownership was provided in the form of palmprint identification which indicated that Oswald had possession of the rifle he had purchased.

A few minutes after the rifle was discovered on the sixth floor of the Depository Building⁴⁴ it was examined by Lt. J. C. Day of the identification bureau of the Dallas police. He lifted the rifle by the wooden stock after his examination convinced him that the wood was too rough to take fingerprints. Capt. J. W. Fritz then ejected a cartridge by operating the bolt, but only after Day viewed the knob on the bolt through a magnifying glass and found no prints.⁴⁵ Day continued to examine the rifle with the magnifying glass, looking for
