2 PRESIDENTS HELD AWARE OF PLOTS

Aide in Two Inquiries Cites Eisenhower and Kennedy

By RICHARD L. MADDEN Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23-The tormer chief counsel of th Rockefeller Commission that investigated the Central Intel-Fgence Presidents Eisenhower and Kennedy knew of the agenc,'s assassination plots againt Pr'me Minister Fidel Castro of Cu ha.

David W. Belin, an Iowa lawyer who also was a counsel on the Warren Commission that investigated the assassination of Mr. Kennedy, said tha the "evidence is in conflict" on Presidential respoaxnsibility for C.I.A. actions.

C.I.A. actions. But, appearing on the CBS "Face the Nation" television program, Mr. Belin noted that Allen W. Dulles, then Director of Central Intelligence, was the brother of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles in the Eisenhower Administration and that Robert F. Kennedy was Attor-ney General in his brother's Aministration

'Reasonable' Assumptional

"I think it's reasonable to assume that they did know when the brother of the Pres-ident knew, and when the brother of the head of the C.I.A. was Secretary of State," Mr. Belin said.

Mr. Belin said he assumed "that the Presidents could read between the lines" and that "these people were not naive people from the hinterlands but were peopl in sophisticated Washington." The Senate Select Committee on Intelligence said in its report last week on assassination plots that it was unable to establish that any former Unit-ed States President had directly ordered the killing of a foreign ordered the killing of a foreign leader. But the report added, "Whe-ther or not the President in fact knew about the assassina-tion plots, and even if their subordinates failed in their duty of full disclosure, it still follows that the President should have known about the plots."

'A Thorough Job'

Mr. Belin, who served on the commission earlier this year headed by Vice President

year headed by Vice President Rockefeller that investigated intelligence activities, 'said he thought that the Senate com-mittee's report had been "a "so far as whether it's easy, too easy or not too easy on Presidents, several of whom are not living now, I think that the evidence is in conflict on that." Mr. Belin urged yesterday that Congress reopen the inves-tigation into President Kenne-dy's death because of new questions stemming from find-ings of United States involve-ment in plots against foreign ings of United States involve-ment in plots against foreign leaders. Ke reiterated today that he was convinced that Lee Harvey Oswald "was the sole gunman that killed Pres-ident Lennedy" but that a new inquiry "would greatly contri-bute toward restoration of cre-ditibility in government for the opplepp tpopp kpnopwpp tph people to know that the War-ren Commission did find the truth."