

Dear Paul,

8/19/76

There is a special reason for this hasty response to your 8/13, here today.

My work had already been interrupted when the mail came. I'd taken Lil grocery shopping.

I'll read the clips when I can. Thanks for them.

I should never have boasted about how good I felt. I then became uncomfortable in the feet, especially when I sit, however I sit and whatever I wear. The local vascular man was going on vacation and set an appointment for the 30th. But I've just made an appointment with a local GP for tomorrow afternoon.

"An old acquaintance of mine was one of his oldest friends" you say of the recently departed who had been questioned by your local fuzz who, like just about all the police involved in this, are lying. I've been feeding a reporter friend who feeds back.

I don't know the interests of your acquaintance or his willingnesses but I have spotted in this what others have missed. I have no idea who is responsible for that departure or several others that, if you do not know, coincide with it. But I can pinpoint one in particular who did a job in the interest of this client(s).

It did serve official interests, however. And he was not without official connections, I'm certain.

I'm not saying it has current meaning because I do not know. I am saying it was irregular and may or may not be relevant.

I've informed a couple of reporters I know. I do not know whether they will be able to do anything or will even be assigned to. But the information is out of my possession only. My hunch is that it can have relevance.

Among the cops who are lying are those in Chicago. They deny any interest and deny an alleged suicide dead for five days without being smelled by her neighbors was ~~not~~ married to a man who floated ashore off Staten Island, also wrapped in chains, the same day. She had been. And the medical examiner posted the alleged suicide as "natural causes."

But I'm not inviting any more health problems.

Lil is retying "The Defenestration of Henry Cott." One of my real regrets is that it is an impossibility for me to sit down and do one thing at a time and give it full attention. It may not be a good job. Please make any suggestions you may want to or if you know someone there who might be interested and is an editor or writer please ask for it to be done. I'm overloaded with legal work I want to complete before Jim returns. It has to do with an outstanding citizen I'm sure you want to receive all the attention possible, Dugan, who you observed in action. I'll have written as much as a book before Jim is back, addressing every paper he has filed and laying a basis, judge willing, for something to happen.

Caution Ebsen against taking Garrison literally. I haven't read the book and won't waste money on it but I know Garrison well and I know the antecedents, a job on him by the spooks that I broke up in one aspect. Their profile on him was perfect.

I've heard of but have not read or seen "The Control of Candy Jones." I recall her, her marriage, etc. While I still have not read all the records I now have on this I have had several called to my attention but those to whom I've provided copies and I'm as astounded as I am pleased at the factual confirmation of my initial analysis. Now even to the minature container for aerosol distribution.

There never was a time when the Roselli murder was not a federal case with a real law to give the Bureau jurisdiction. How many guesses do you need on why they said they would not enter and their claim to no jurisdiction? Thanks and best,

Dear Harold;

Just a note with a couple of clippings from the L.A. Times about Kelly. Also, the ad for the book on MLK by Mac Millan. The carbon of your letter to Jerry explained somewhat the situation about the book. The Roselli murder is interesting. An old acquaintance of mine was one of his oldest friends. I had a talk with him last night, of course he wouldn't say much but he had all ready been questioned by the LAPD and the Bureau although they say they are not into the case. He is mentioned in the Xrox of the article included.

I very much like the title "The Defenestration of Henry Cott." I am looking forward to your outline. I showed Ebsen the letter you sent mentioning your DR's advice on exercise etc. He wanted me to thank you. He also read Garrisons book TheStartspangled Contract and was very impressed by the content. He would like to read my copy of Oswald in New Orleans.

Give my best to Lil and am glad to hear your are in pretty good shape.

Best,
