Dear Mr. Weisberg,

I just got your letter in the mail today. Thank you so much for taking the time to respond, and doing so quickly! I took your advice and have contacted the Hood College bookstore to see if I can buy copies of your other books. I had heard of the Katzenbach memo online and from your book Never Again!, but I hadn't seen the original. Thank you for sending me a copy of it. It is very helpful. I understand that you don't have access to all of your files right now, but I greatly appreciate the effort you took to send me this letter. As for questions, I do have a few. Basically, the same questions I had in the last letter. First, do you know how I could get access to the whole 26 volumes of Warren Commission testimony and exhibits? I've checked public libraries and university libraries, and I have had no luck. And, one thing about the Zapruder film. If the large wound to the president's head is in the rear, why doesn't the film show it? And if the wound isn't in the president's rear, why do all the Parkland doctors describe it as being there? Any insight into these matters you could provide would be a great help to me.

Once again I am very thankful for the time and effort you put into sending me a response. I look forward to reading your other books!

Sincerely,

Zach Rosen
