

6/10/74

Dear Arvin,

Thanks for your 5/29. I've just finished a chapter of the book tentatively titled The Unimpeachment of Richard Nixon and am catching up - no insult, friend - because I don't have enough time to start another before going for my wife. This is one of her two working days.

Is Harry A. Wolfson of the Lucius (Nathan) Littauer Foundation a relative?

Heard from Martin Price, thanks. Expect to call him 20th when we have dental appointments in Washington.

He probably thinks I'm self-defeating but he doesn't know what a shibboleth is until, as the Indians say, he walks in my particular moccasins!

But I have a story now under consideration in England I'll take to him.

Despite experiences of the past, I did go to the Fund for Investigative Reporting long ago, last time I was in Washington. Bray stayed busy, was to phone me, and hasn't.

Thanks and best to you both,

Sincerely,
