EDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGAT

December 2, 1963

Mrs. MILDRED LANE LONGWORTH, wife of ERNEST HARRY LONGWORTH, 214 Chickasaw Drive, Chattandoga, Tennessee, owners from 1961 to present of Peanut Shoppes (2), Chattanooga, Tennessee, was interviewed and categorically denied any knowledge of assassination of President KENNEDY, any knowledge of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, JACK RUBY, or any knowledge regarding plans or reported discussions regarding plans for assassination of President KENNEDY or anyone. She denied being in Washington, D.C. since January, 1963 when she visited her uncle, THOMAS J. JACKSON, retired U. S. Army Captain, then a patient at Walter Reed Hospital. At that time she stayed with JACKSON's wife two weeks, at 6204 Wedgewood Road, Bethesda, Maryland. In February, 1963 she traveled to Nashville, Tennessee, contacted an individual regarding small business loan from the U. S. Government. She reported she has not been out of Hamilton County, Teanessee since February, 1963.

Mrs. LONGWORTH denied making any statements that she had been in Washington, D.C. recently, that she had attended a meeting in which persons were assigned to kill President KENNEDY or any government official; denied stating she has any knowledge or of having heard of any discussions of any plans regarding assassination, denies any knowledge of meeting or plans of meeting for the purpose of discussing assassination of anyone.

Mrs. IONGWORTH stated during July, 1963 she purchased outside flashing sign for Peanut Shoppes, Chattanoogs, from JOHN R. ROWE, 3600 Ridgeview Drive, West Birmingham, Alabama, a salesman for Superior Outdoor Display, Inc., 1251 Gaylord Street, Long Beach, California. Her first contact with this man was one evening and second contact the following day when signs purchased, both July, 1963. She states she has had no prior or previous contact with this individual. During one of these two meetings they discussed civil rights program, U. S. Supreme Court decisions, and U. S. Government administrative policy with which both disagreed, especially concerning use of Federal troops and the rushing of the civil rights program. ROWE reportedly made several statements the exact wording not recalled, but in substance that he had talked to a number of persons and the feelings were strong enough against the administration over civil rights that it would be possible if enough people were willing, to run the risk, to get rid of Attorney General ROBERT KENNEDY and Chief Justice WARREN. He reportedly made the specific statement, "You know the best news I could ever hear would be that two of the KENNEDYS bad been killed in an airplane crash going to the funeral of the third KENNEDY". She did not recall ROWE making any statements regarding individuals being assigned to kill the President or that a meeting had been held or even planued for such assignments. He did state that if enough men were dedicated enough to run the risk that assassination of the KENNEDYS and Justice WARREN could be accomplished. He also made the statement that he had discussed the fact of assassination of the KENNEDYS with a number of persons and it should, and could, be done. Mrs. LONGWORTH stated she was not involved in any way and had no knowledge regarding the assassination of President KENNEDY, any plans of such assassination and had never heard any statements regarding such and positively had never made any statements that she had information regarding such plans or activities. She described JOHN R. ROWE as a white male, 45-55, 6'1", slender build, no additional descriptive data known, and states she doubts she could recognize him if viewed again.

She did state that since the conversations with JOHN R. ROWE she had made the statements on several occasions to members of her family and possibly a few friends, whose identity she could not recall at time of interview. These statements were in substance that she had heard there was a move made to try to get a number of people who would be willing to try to kill a number of top government officials including Attorney General ROBERT KENNEDY and Chief Justice WARREN. She did not recall if he included President KENNEDY in this or similar statements. She also stated she had made the statement she believed because of the many hard feelings over civil rights matters that the KENNEDYS and Chief Justice WARREN way be assassinated. She has remarked that it could happen and that it had been discussed, however, she positively states she had no facts or basis for making such statements, did not know of such plans or discussions, except those set forth above. She described herself as not being an extremist, but believing in the basic program of the administration. She stated she personally believes the civil rights program is being pashed too fast, that equal rights are deserved but Negroes are demanding and pushing matters too fast and the principal trouble is attributed to agitators. admitted making some very unwise, unfounded statements in the past, as set forth above. She stated she has never written letters to government officials, business leaders or news media, except for one poem which was written to the editor of the Chattanooga News-Free Press, a daily publication, Chattanooga, Tennessee. This poem was written on the night Alabama Governor GOERGE WALLACE was forced by U. S. Government troops to move from the entrance of the University of Alabama. This poem was written under a name other than her own. A copy of this poem was turned over to interviewing Agents. This poem is set forth as follows:

"SHADES OF LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

"Little Johnnie Kennedy's come to our house to stay
To sit in judgement and chase the cares away of all the Kneegrows in our town, and bring them in to Tea, so that we can see what we missed in the color that we be and hear tales of integration they have brought about.
The federal troops will get us all --If we don't watch out.

An onct there was a time, when if you tried real hard and somehow managed to put aside a little money now and then, and hid it away the time would come when you could say "take this here money, Son, find what it's all about" But now the feds will get you --If you don't watch out.

An' ouct, when you made a little money and didn't try to live on milk and honey you could save a little for a rainy day. Now it rains all the time, "pears it's here to stay. So no college for mine, or mine to come about 'cause the feds will get us all If we don't watch out.

So, Son, don't be Governor, you might get shot or stepped on, or even demoted and what good is a Governor? He has no right to decide all the poor guy can do is struggle, and then abide by a decree sent from little Johnnie, the lout-That the feds will get him too --If he don't watch out.

No need to have ambition or try free enterprise 'cause little Johnnie will see that if we tries the Tax Collector will find a way - He will come to our door and say "Won' do no good to plead or shout 'cause we feds will get you If you don't watch out.

Now the moral to this tale is that we struggle and work to keep some people free and pay taxes so that we may know we're helping our Johnnie to bestow largess to those who agitate and shout 'cause the feds won't get them, they don't need to watch out.

Now woe is me, alas, alack
I was born white instead of black.
Now is the time we "whites begin our decline and if she is lucky, a kneegrow will marry Caroline.
I hope our black friends don't find me out 'cause the NAACP will get me
If I don't watch out.
