DEAR HAROLD,

Thanx for your most recent enclosures. the letter to Howard Fast was poignant.

I enclose the piece in the Times about the gun of Jack Ruby. It's not central to your focus but it's an interesting assassination spinoff.

Mention of the Jewish angle reminds me of a follow-up of the reminiscence I ~~xxxxxxx~~ recorded in a recent letter of our visit to Dallas years ago. On that visit we met Rabbi Silverman, then in Dallas and he told us that when Ruby was jailed he insisted on seeing "his rabbi." Who was that? Silverman; he told us he had never had anything to do with Ruby. But he went to see him and Ruby ranted about how Jewish he was. Subsequently, Ruby kept clamoring for "his rabbi, and ~~he~~ became such a nudnik that Silverman told us one reason he left Dallas was to get away from the pest. He went to L.A. and ~~b~~ subsequently to Greenwich, Conn.

Regards.

Yours,
