SUBJECT: JACK L. RUBY, aka;
LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka-VICTIM (Deceased)
CR

Reference is made to the article appearing in "The Dallas Times Herald" on Wednesday, 7/22/64, referring to full text of the test given RUBY.

It is noted that at approximately 2:30 this afternoon I was talking to Mr. EMMETT COLVIN, who referred to the article appearing in "The Dallas Morning News" and he stated that he and Mr. FOWLER were concerned over the fact that it was unfavorable to RUBY and that FOWLER had indicated he might release the favorable portion. I made no comment, except to state that we had not released anything and that he might desire to talk to RANKIN about it.

Shortly thereafter, the paper appeared and I had already placed a call for Mr. FOWLER. When talking to him, I mentioned the story and he stated he had not yet seen it. He did state, however, that he had made up a list of questions and answers as best he could and had furnished the same to Attorney SOL DANN in Detroit, Michigan, and to EARL RUBY in Detroit. He also stated that SOL DANN was coming in today and that DANN had advised him that he, TONAHILL and BURLESON were all fired. He did not know exactly what their status was. He indicated he was going to look at the paper and it is entirely possible these items had either been released by DANN or EARL RUBY, although he does not know.
