

Order 9/2/67

U.S. Peace Proposals As Listed by Rusk

United Press International

Here are the 28 peace proposals which Secretary of State Dean Rusk yesterday said the United States had agreed to and which North Vietnam had rejected:

"—A reconvening of the Geneva conference of 1954 and a return to the agreements of 1954;

"—A reconvening of the Geneva conference of 1962 on Laos and a return to the agreements of 1962;

"—A conference on Cambodia;

"—An all-Asian peace conference;

"—A special effort by the two (Geneva) co-chairmen;

"—A special effort by the ICC (International Control Commission);

"—A role for the United Nations Security Council—or the General Assembly—or the Secretary General;

"—Talks through intermediaries—single or group;

"—Direct talks—with the United States or with South Vietnam;

"—Exchange of prisoners of war;

"—Supervision of treatment of prisoners by International Red Cross;

"—Demilitarize the DMZ (Demilitarized Zone);

"—Widen and demilitarize the DMZ;

"—Interposition of international forces between combatants;

"—Mutual withdrawal of foreign forces, including North Vietnamese forces;

"—Assistance to Cambodia to assure its neutrality and territory;

"—Cessation of bombing and reciprocal de-escalation;

"—Cessation of bombing, infiltration and augmentation of United States forces;

"—Three suspensions of bombings to permit serious talks;

"—Discussion of Hanoi's four points along with points of others, such as Saigon's four points and our 14 points;

"—Discussion of an agreed four points as basis for negotiation;

"—Willingness to find means to have the views of the liberation front Vietcong heard in peace discussions;

"—Negotiations without conditions, negotiations about conditions or discussion of a final settlement;

"—Peace and the inclusion of North Vietnam in large development program for Southeast Asia;

"—Government of South Vietnam to be determined by free elections;

"—Question of reunification to be determined by free elections;

"—Reconciliation with Vietcong and readmission to the body politic of South Vietnam;

"—South Vietnam can be neutral if it so chooses."