Dear Ralph,

The middle of the month, for which you forecast your visit, has come. Sort of expected you this weekend. If you want to make it next weekend, combining work and "vacation", by all means. We'll be here, working. I've finished the long (150,000 words) addition to COUP D'ETAT. My wife is retyping it while I read and correct - hardly the best procedure but we've little choice, for I must continue with the writing (such an enormous amount still to be done if I never get any new information).

If you come next weekend, don't forget bathing suits. We've a pool 20 feet from the house.

We have something in common: the same speakers' bureau. I was in Boston Wednesday, introduced to Bob Walker by Dick Gregory. The question is the interest in the Garrison had left.

I've new and "hot" material on the Ray thing, enough for legal action, if it is improbable.

Sincerely,

.Harold Weisberg
