

ASSASSINATION COMMISSION

REF: JMC & BGR

While I join with my colleagues in the finding that there is no clear and definite evidence connecting any person or group in conspiracy with Oswald to assassinate the President, there are some aspects of his case that I cannot decide with absolute certainty due to the fact that any such evidence, if it exists, is beyond the reach of the Commission or the investigative agencies of the United States. There are, however, several bits of evidence that have raised questions in my mind that are not answered or explained by any evidence the Commission could procure.

Among these are the extent of Oswald's associations and connections with the large number of Cuban nationals who were students in the educational institutions in Minsk during his residence there; the nature and extent of his relationship with foreign nationals who may have had a purpose in Washington to kill the President of the United States, the scope and number of communications he may have had with such persons after his return to the United States and a detailed account of all of Oswald's movements, contacts and associations his secret visit to Mexico a few weeks before the assassination of the President. The inability to gather all evidence in these areas as well as a number of suspicious circumstances deduced from the record as made to my mind preclude the conclusive determination that Oswald and Oswald alone, without the knowledge, encouragement or assistance of any other person, planned and perpetrated the assassination.
