

have printed it - eventually
sir - something is wrong
I could not read that
1/4 of your book

August 11, 1908 - 1 copy received
Postage
$1.00
$2.00

Mrs. John A. Sullivan
111 West 11th Street
Bayonne, New Jersey
Dear Mrs. Sullivan:

This book was sent to you previously to the book from. It was called in good faith with the request that if you did not want it, you should please return it to me. The letter which accompanied it is attached.
The book has not been returned, nor have you sent me a note. It is a constant, would you please drop a line to let me know before you forget it. After this long time, it seems you would like to keep it.
Thank you.

Yours truly

W. A. Sullivan

[Faint handwritten notes and signatures at the bottom of the page]

Mrs. John J. Sullivan
44 West 11th Street
Bayonne, New Jersey

Returned Unopened

WNEW

July 25, 1966

Dear Mr. Burke:

I would very much like to obtain a copy of Mr. Harold Weisberg's book "White Wash," could you please tell me how
I might go about doing same?

Your program is marvelous.

Sincerely,

Mr. John J. Sullivan

HAROLD WEISBERG
HYATTSTOWN, MARYLAND 20734

301 WA6-2034, TR4-4246

October 20, 1966

|                                    |            |
|------------------------------------|------------|
| August 24, 1966 - 1 copy WHITEWASH | $4.95     |
| postage                            | .10 |
|                                    | $5.05     |

Mrs. John J. Sullivan
44 West 11th Street
Bayonne, New Jersey
Dear Mrs. Sullivan:

This book was sent to you pursuant to your inquiry to the Alan Burke Show. It was mailed in good faith, with the request that, if you did not want it, you should please return it to me. The letter which accompanied it so stated.

The book has not been returned, nor have you sent payment. If it is an oversight, would you please drop a check in the mail now before you forget? After this long time, we assume you would like to keep the book.

Thank you.

Yours truly

L. Weisberg
L. Weisberg

*Where did you get all the pictures Mr. W.
and if so sincere any published Publication would*

*Rtd
10/27/66
invaluable,
with
HWA*