

Dear Don Summers,

8/27/90

Sorry, I don't know anyone who can use your services.

With regard to Ricky White, he is a fraud trying to perpetrate an indecency for profit. None of his story is true as it relates to the assassination and the few coincidences, which are fewer than he claims, have no meaning at all.

I'm 77 now and recovering from open-heart surgery, which limits me, so I doubt that I'd want to write an introduction to the worthwhile project, a biblio. on our assassinated presidents. I've not enough time for what I should do. Wrono would be a good person and if he's too busy could probably make a recommendation.

When you are in Washington you are not far away, an hour or a little more.

You'll be welcome but call first: 301/473-8186.

Best wishes,

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Enclosed a copy of the article on RICKY WHITE and his father ROSCOE. May be a new book for you.

I am just completing a BIBLIOGRAPHY on the Assassinated American Presidents and would be interested in talking with you on your writing the introduction for it.

Naturally all 7 of your books are in plus David Thorne's Legal Proceedings of you.

I know you are a busy man but if it is at all possible sometime when I'm in Washington if I could drive to Fredericks to meet you, I would certainly appreciate it.

I am also mailing my resume' to you in hopes you know of someone who would need my services as researcher/bookseller. I will relocate.

With kind regards.

Bob Summers
