Dear Karen,

It was a fine and a very pleasant surprise to see you and Mary when we had no idea you were nearby! And you both look good.

It will be good if Alex's move has you passing by more often so you can drop off for a visit from time to time.

Boy can I use help with the files!

The fine young woman who started ran into some for her serious financial problems and to meet them had to take a second job. She also got ripped off by a garage and a dentist, which makes it worse. But she did get started and that covers about 20% of the shifting that is needed to give me some space in my office. She'll be back to do more when she can.

From the file drawers that were not fully closed I think you may have looked in the wrong one to see the boxed manuscripts. But if you saw boxes you were also in the right ones.

Thanks for stopping off.

It is now time for me to go for the third blood test this week.

Best to you both,

Harold

Dear Harold & Lil,

It was really great seeing you both again. Just wish we could have stayed a little longer. Unfortunately, Mary had to be back before dinner time to help Gary with a professional conference he was hosting Sun - Tues. I think I mentioned that Alex may be moving to Washington before the end of the year and, if he does, I'll probably be passing by your way more often on my way to DC. I'd like to be able to see you both more often, or even spend more time to help Harold with his files, etc. I'll give you a call the next time I'm heading your way. Hope to see you soon; In the meantime, take care. LOVE,
Karen
