Dear David,

Yesterday I got copies of two of Harry's most recent letters, of 3/27 and 4/3, and they cause me added apprehension. It is true that he shifted to me as his imagine chief persecutor in a number of references, especially one to "Harold and his gangsters" as the cause of all his imagined troubles. He made several more references to himself and the Baltimore city police. If necessary I'll send you copies. As did Rick, he continues to say what is impossible, that all his bad information came from Crough. He also refers to "a network of former FBI agents and they mean business. I am tied in close there."

"I would not have the help of veteran police officers if I was dishonest. It is essential that you cooperate 100% with us now, and fast, because others have been investigating you and the others, and there is a lot of criminal activity, was well as fraud and misrepresentation. Rick was so angry he has made moves for official action. I have been provided with Washington lawyers to do the same." Referring to an unidentified "they" preceded by one name only, that of Rookstool, he wrote "They somehow found out who the witnesses were that we were going to interview and the Baltimore police, whom you faxed, had asked them to report on us. Of course we could not have known, and instead we got the highest report back to the BCPD."

He refers to Rick's participation in an interview of Mary.

Throughout these two letters he has me the ringleader of his imagined campaign against him.

I think these letters also reflect the desperation I feared when he learned that what he has been fed is garbage and from his megalomania, among other sicknesses like his overt paranoia, he will look for someone to blame other than himself.

I do believe I have something to fear from him and frankly, I believe that the Baltimore police bear some responsibility for allowing all of this to continue so long after they knew what was afoot.

I hope that belatedly they will do what they should have done long ago for whatever protection that can now give me and perhaps others.

Aside from what I quote above, the strained language his, he has repeatedly indicated that he was getting information from inside Internal Affairs.

our best,

David
