Dear Harold,

Many thanks for the copy of WHITEWASH IV, which arrived a few days ago. I have so far only had time to read through the book without studying its contents carefully, but on first glance it seems to be in keeping with your usual standard - superb! Keep up the good work, and don't forget to put me on your list for a copy of any other books you publish.

I have send you today an International Money Order, number 3275926, which should cover the cost of the book and the postage. If you have any difficulty cashing this (which should not be the case), or if it is not enough money, do let me know and I will fix up with you. However, my Bank gave me the very latest exchange rate, so everything should be correct. However, if there are any problems, do please let me know.

Many thanks again for sending me the book, and I look forward to hearing from you again, and reading your next book. With best wishes for every success in this massive undertaking.

Yours sincerely,

Chris Scally
