

Dear Harold -

Feb 4, 1992

Glad to hear that you are recovering well. I'd not heard of the sleep problems you describe but people here say that they occur. Nobody has a good explanation. I suppose that any self trauma to the body is bound to produce such effects. I've been busy finding ways to market the new book w/out spending $ - something you've (I'm sure) had a bit of experience with.

Alex is now getting physical therapy via the public schools free of charge! We've put him on a 1000 calorie diet (he weighs more than 40 lbs & is only 25 months old.) Katherine is job-hunting but thankfully got 6 months of Severance.

Love and Joy to You

Vince Sabandria, who's re-married, is doing well. His son, while on probation, used drugs again & is back in prison. ~~Write~~ Write hopes some day he can kick the habit. They have some contact - Ernie has come to accept why Vince turned him in for murder.

Give my best to Lil.
Best wishes for continued recovery
