Dear Gary,

I have checked. I do not have that Thornley material. If you recheck and do not find it I'll have to see if it is misfiled. My recollection is that when you had it here it was not quite finished, you were going to have the girl finish and type it and then you were going to send it to me. If you did, try and recall the date. Perhaps that will help me locate it.

C I am interested in the Bulletin interview with Bevel about 3/15 or 3/16. I have the stories about it from several other papers but I presume the Bulletin interview, their source, is more complete. If you have and can send me a copy I'd appreciate it. I had expected someone from the SCLC today. It is now six p.m. and I've not heard from him. I have read the Huie piece in LOOK. It is like a literate Warren Report, rather, a readable one. Ray may be a bastard, but with such friends he certainly needs no enemies! I'll read Hanes and Foreman tonight. I'll be typing my Huie notes and adding this to the epilogue, which could soon be book length.

O Several time I have asked Vince for minor things and I never get anything. One that may be important to me perhaps you have. This is the Goulden story or stories on Oswald as an agent. He has this (these). If you do not, would you mind asking him, please?

P The enclosed NY exchange is confidential. Tell me what you think. I'll keep you posted. If I get to responding before I mail this, I'll have the letter from Canale. Keep it confidential also. Huie has not answered, which now pleases me. Neither has Foreman, which also will help.

Y Have you mentioned what I learned about the destruction and burning to anyone. I have told but three people, not including one from whom it fed back.

Sincerely,
