

1/6/70

Dear Gary,

Having heard nothing from you, I presume you had no response to your letter to Matt.

I have had none from my letter to Vince.

And no word from N.O. I needle 'em once in a while. It may not be the right way, but I have learned that without it or something similar there is no chance at all.

Our friends daily reduce our need for enemies.

Sincerely,