Dear Cal,

Sorry, I have no address for Morris. Lives in Fort Worth, I understand/.

My recollection now is not clear but I do not recall that there was a clip ~~in~~ in the rifle when it was found. May have been.

You confuse two things: a) ^{whether} where all Connally's wounds could have come from a single bullet and b) whether 399 could have inflicted all his wounds.

With regard to the possibility of any bullet doing that, it is impossible/

With regard to that bullet doing it, also impossible. In addition, as you should have seen in Whitewash, all the doctors, including the autopsy doctors, said it was not possible and not one testified that the magic bullet theory was possible. Look also in NEVER AGAIN! After words on Dr. Dolce. And throughout Post Mortem. You'll do better if you are serious in your writing not to waste time on the theoreticians and stick to the actual official evidence.

You and your mom will again be welcome.

Best wishes

Herold

Dear Mr. Weisberg

Thanks for writing back and thanks for Broden's address. I wrote a letter to Broden on Wednesday and mailed it on Thursday. I am writing this on Sunday. I know this is too short of time for him to write back but I am expecting it soon.

So how's every thing going, so far my book is coming along. Charlie and I are writing a short letter to the news paper, telling them about what I am doing and how long I have been researching the Kennedy assassination.

Charlie says it would be nice to tell everyone and it ~~is~~ may even help sell my book. We're writing ^{that} a letter now so it would be printed on November 22. It may not even get to the papers. Charlie knows some people on the press so it may work.

I got some more questions to ask. One is, Did Oswald's rifle have a clip ~~with~~ when it was found, and how many shots do you think hit Connally. I heard some people say two shots hit Connally but I personally think just one. See I am a hunter and I know quite a bit about guns and I believe just one hit him, if one of the ~~assassins~~ was using a high powered assassin.

Little I do believe one bullet could wound Connally. Not like the Warren Commission said, but Connally was facing left and a bullet went through his body and in to his thigh.

I am finishing up on Whit Wash and after I am done I am going to take a little break on Kennedy. I'm going to read a book about the Civil War. That should only take 2 or 3 days then back on Kennedy.

So far I am doing good in school and I really don't even have home work so have a lot of time to do whatever. So any way I'll right back again and if you would not mind could you please tell me Jim Morris's address. I would like to write to him some time. Thanks again.

With your permission I'll ask my mom to visit again some time with in a few months. Take care and tell your wife hi for me.

your friend
