

Service Uniform Probe Oswald's Moves

By GERRIE KOLZ

WASHINGTON, May 17 (AP) — New Orleans and the Dallas area are being probed for clues to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, according to a report from a source familiar with the investigation.

The source, who has provided information to the press in the past, said that the Dallas office of the FBI is conducting a search for information that might lead to the assassin of the president. The source said that the Dallas office is also looking for information that might lead to the assassin's accomplices.

The source said that the Dallas office is also looking for information that might lead to the assassin's accomplices. The source said that the Dallas office is also looking for information that might lead to the assassin's accomplices.