

Senate spy panel calls for JFK probe

By THE BUREAU
Washington Bureau of The Post
5/14/66

Washington—After re-examining the assassination of John F. Kennedy for the past six months, the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence Activities decided yesterday to call for a new, faster probe by a writing to the committee on their findings and the committee will then decide whether to make the report public. Meanwhile, yesterday the Senate delayed until next week any final action on a resolution

...the committee on their findings and the committee will then decide whether to make the report public. Meanwhile, yesterday the Senate delayed until next week any final action on a resolution ...

...the committee on their findings and the committee will then decide whether to make the report public. Meanwhile, yesterday the Senate delayed until next week any final action on a resolution ...