By MARTIN WALDRON

Senator Richard S. Schweicker said in Harrisburg, Pa., last week that the Warren Commission report on the investigation of the assassination of President Kennedy is "like a house of cards; it's going to collapse."

Thus the mild-mannered Republican Senator joined a curious mixture of Americans who no longer believe that the public was told the truth 12 years ago about the death of a President, and are now demanding an entirely new investigation.

These millions include respecied public officials as well as the irrational, the confused and the mischievous.

Receptive Listeners

The Warren Commission report has been under almost constant attack from its release in the fall of 1968, but demands for a new investigation—comprising a small group of professional writers and lecturers—have become increasingly clamorous since President Nixon was forced out of office last year by the Watergate scandals. These demands seem to be falling on receptive ears.

Two Congressional subcommittees are taking a tentative look into how the assassination was investigated, with particular emphasis on whether the Central Intelligence Agency up to the United States "out of the barrel of a gun."

Only one of the top officials of the Warren Commission has been active in trying to shore up its findings. He is David Belin of Des Moines, one of the attorneys who headed the investigation into the death of Senator Gary Hart, Democrat of Colorado. The other is under the direction of Representative Don Edwards, Democrat of California.

The attack on the Warren Report's finding that Lee sheer speculation have been almost lost in a flood of rhetoric from the other side.

Mr. Belin has now begun to snap back at the critics, saying current movement are "confused, foolish or motivated by money."

The rising tide of doubts about who killed President Kennedy and why has begun to attract the attention of psychologists interested in mass behavior.

A teacher in the department of American studies at Brandeis University, Jacob Cohen, made rumors about the Dallas assassination is one of the astonishment in the current issue of the magazine Commentary.

"How can one explain the extraordinary degree of political distrust, and beyond that, the pervasive taste for mystery and conspiracy which is everywhere so conspicuous in America today?" he asked.

There are widely held theories that flying saucers are real leaders of the anti-Warren movement and that the Atlantic Ocean Commission contains an area that is deadly kept their viewpoint alive in relation to airplanes and ships, in addition to the Kennedy conspiracy theories, Mr. Cohen said.

The theme also dominates many radio talk shows where listeners tell each other about Government cabals concerning Watergate, Vietnam, on Oct. 10, 11 and 12 in the regional and national semi-annual "debates," and radio on Oct. 10, 11 and 12 in the college lecture circuit.

The theme also dominates the United States "out of the barrel of a gun."

Only one of the top officials of the Warren Commission has been active in trying to shore up its findings. He is David Belin of Hartford.

Attendance over the three days ranged from 300 to 2,000, even though it poured rain throughout the weekend.

Presiding at the convention was Mark Lane, a former member of the New York State As-ssembly who was the first and most important part.

"I believe we are dealing with habits of mind in the very center of our life and times, not most of the allegations which positively reveal in mystication and perhaps not the most consistent

critic of the Warren Commission.

Mr. Belin's painstaking ef-orts to point out that many, if not most, of the allegations which positively reveal in mystication and perhaps not the

most consistent

critic of the Warren Commis-

"national press has a lot to say it," he said. "Many of the leaders of the caption" of the Warren Commission report.

Any competent investigative reporter could quickly de-monish the commission's find- ings, he said.

The Hartford convention participants were told the assassination of President Kennedy, pressure.

Defense contractors became alarmed that they could not followed through on his decision to withdraw United States troops from Vietnam, and the Kennedy murder.

ing the hundreds of cheering participants that the C.I.A., said.

A Standing Ovation

The former New Orleans

prosecutor got a standing ovation.

Senator Schweiicker's prediction this week that the Warren Commission report is about "to collapse" was predicated, the Senate said, on "very significant leads."

Mr. Schweiicker said that he and Senator Hart were investigating the following possibilities:

"That Mr. Kennedy had been killed through a Communist plot originating in Cuba or the Soviet Union."

That the assassination had been prompted by a right-wing

Americans" who don't believe that Mr. Oswald was a lone assassin.

Mr. Garrison's attendance at the Hartford meeting was his first venture back into the realm of Kennedy conspiracy

"The only thing I'm certain about is that we don't know the truth about the Kennedy assassin."

President Kennedy

was acquitted.

Mr. Garrison was the first public official to say that the

C.I.A. and the F.B.I. conspired to kill the President.

The purpose of the assassination was to withdraw United States troops from Vietnam, and the purpose of the assassination was to prevent the United States from drifting into an economic depression.
