in any significant way. He commented that "all the people in Dallas have the same hair color, probably from the point of view of all the things there are generally the same, except in particular because there is a Russian one in a strange land and could not speak English."

Other sources: Michael Heller an investment banker in Dallas. He did not go for a job but was turned down because he had no capability. Heller has investments interests in many enterprises all over the country employing thousands of people.

They Heller and his wife (who is "Russian"), Mrs. Heller is an ex-employee of the State. He works in Taxers Department there in Dallas "as kind of stock or something like that." They have no children. They take care of Marie's child and her baby for a while with Mrs. Heller's child. Marie was associated from her husband. (The Bolsheviks had moved Mrs. Heller on that occasion, from the Slab's street address to the Hellers.)
