lar, dat. S. Arnal 146; Ordered for Shaw Tria s Assassination Plotter

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — A three-judge panel has ruled n a preliminary hearing that n a preliminary nearing that wealthy retired business leader Clay L. Shaw should become the first man to stand trial con-cerning the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

In ordering the trial for Shaw on a charge of conspiracy to murder the President, Judge Bernard J. Bagert said yesterlay at the conclusion of the iour-day hearing. "This court inds sufficient evidence has been presented to establish probable cause that a crime has been committed."

The ruling came on Shaw's 54th birthday.

The decision was a first-round victory for gun-toting Jim Gar-rison, this town's 6-foot-6 dis-trict attorney. Garrison startled the world a month ago with a statement that he had "solved" the Kennedy assassination, would make arrests, and would obtain convictions.

Garrison produced two witnesses who linked Shaw and Oswald, New Orleans-born ex-

Sept. 25, 1963.

Vernon Bundy, 29, an admit-ted narcotics addict, walked over to Shaw in court yesterday and put his hand over the accused's head, identifying him as the man he saw with Oswald here on the Lake Pontchartrain seawall. The Warren Commission said it had found no evidence that Oswald was involved with any person or group in a conspiracy, but it noted: "Because of the difficulty of proving negatives to a certainty the possibility of others being involved . . . cannot be established categorically." "I say the only worthy thing of Russo's testimony is that he knw David Ferrie and feared his intelligence," said Wegmann in his concluding arguments.

"What they've put in, what they've got at this hearing," he continued, "it might warrant future investigation by competent authorities, but it doesn't warrant holding this man."

The court released Shaw on his present $10,000 bond which Shaw posted several hours after his March 1 arrest by Garrison.
