Shaw Lawyers Will Make Bid to Veto Indictment

Attorneys to Seek Way to Nix DA's Charges

Clay Shaw's defense lawyers go to court Monday seeking to overturn the John F. Kennedy assassination conspiracy indictment against him.

In what looks to be a long hearing, defense attorneys said they hope to:

—Quash the Orleans Parish Grand Jury conspiracy indictment against Shaw.

—Suppress the seizure of Shaw's belongings and have them returned. They were seized earlier this year when Shaw was first arrested by District Atty. Jim Garrison.

—Have the defense be provided a bill of particulars, which would include times, dates and places of the alleged conspiracy.

—Have the DA's office comply with a prayer foroyer, asking the prosecution to produce documents and other evidence in the conspiracy.

One of Shaw's lawyers, Edward F. Wegmann, Saturday refused to confirm or deny that Lee Odom, who cropped up in the Garrison investigation when his name was found scribbled in Shaw's notes, would appear at the hearing.

"He will be here when his appearance is needed," said Wegmann. "I stand on that."

There are 32 others, however, who have been served with subpoena. Cont. in Sec. 1, Page 12, Col. 6 penas. These include Criminal District Court judges Malcolm V. O'Hara; Matthew S. Braniff, Thomas M. Brahney Jr., Rudolph F. Becker Jr., Oliver P. Schulingkamp, Frank J. Shea and Bernard J. Bagert.

Only Criminal District Court Judge Edward A. Haggerty Jr., who has been assigned the Shaw case and will conduct the hearing Monday, was spared the service of a subpoena.

Garrison himself was called by the Shaw forces and will appear. Likewise, members of his staff who have handled the investigation, may be called by Shaw's lawyers.

Other persons given subpoenas to appear include the organizers of "Truth and Consequences of New Orleans, Inc.," the businessmen's group financing the investigation. They are Willard E. Robertson, Joseph M. Rault Jr., and Cecil Shilstone. Complete records of the organization have been requested, including disbursements of the more than $9,000 Robertson Friday said Garrison has spent.

Additionally, Albert V. LaBiche Jr., foreman of the Orleans Parish Grand Jury that indicted Shaw, and members of that jury have been subpoenaed.

Court proceedings will start at 10 a. m. in the section of court presided over by Judge Haggerty.

Garrison alleges that Shaw, former managing director of International Trade Mart, conspired with David Ferrie, Lee Harvey Oswald and Jack Ruby to murder President Kennedy in Dallas, Tex., Nov. 22, 1963.
