SHAW TRIAL FORECAST: If Judge Edward A. Haggerty, Jr. overrules defense attorney's motion for a change of venue for Clay L. Shaw, look for the D.A.'s office to set the case for the first jury date in May—possibly the 13th. Why not April? Because a reporting firm which will handle the tedious steno chores is tied up in April with other commitments.

Also look for Judge Haggerty to approve the televising of the entire trial by a national educational TV network despite the vehement objection of the defense. The film would be shown after the trial is ended.
