New Orleans States-Item

French Market, Tourism Cited Lauds Restorat

March 1972

27

nen Market Project Manager TL Show sees the forthcoming $2.5 line renovation and restoration of French Market as a symbolic nome in the right direction for New rleans.

Shaw told the Press Club Newsmak-Luncheon that New Orleans has no isiness aspiring to become a major innufacturing or distribution center ch as Atlanta or Dallas, but should to encourage its two major income des-the port and tourism.

Tourism, he said currently brings in million a year. He said the typical that monds five days here.

WE CAN encourage that same t to stay one more day we will gained a $60 million increase in commy. inds Pollevent said over the are of the status quo.

in the similarity of his

to develop we will tend to

d the present which were cain be restored. 11

ditwo more He :

> and in one of bontane si

het would be pleying merand Los to a question as to CREDONSE

Turn to Dure 13, Column 1

Continued from Front Page

whether he intended to spend money be might glean from his suit against District Attorney Jim Garrison, on French Market bonds, Shaw said "I have not thought that far ahead."

He said the matter is still before the courts so he preferred not to discuss the itigation. The Supreme Court of the United States has held that he may the Garrison in conjunction with al-leged malicious prosecution and a $5 million suit is pending.