

To Richard Huff from Harold Weisberg - More "New Evidence"
New Orleans JFK Assassination Records
Clay Shaw-Ticklers

2/5/85

The FBI's records disclosed to Mark Allen include search slips on each of the jurors in the Clay Shaw trial of Jim Garrison.

They were in a folder identified, "Jurors - Clay Shaw Trial in N.O."

This is apparently still another tickler that was not "routinely" destroyed and it relates to information that had to originate in New Orleans.

No related New Orleans records have been disclosed to me and nothing of this sort is reflected in the disclosed Clay Shaw search records, which are not the originals but are rewritten by hand.

This still again reflects the existence of known relevant records that are not in central files, not in the so-called main files, known to the FBI to exist and neither searched for nor provided.

It is new to me and thus to you in that I have only now received copies.

These records also indicate that the FBIHQ Garrison watch was located in Room 818 of the building at 9th and D Sts., NW. I believe that part of the Criminal Division of the Department was then housed in that building and in or near rooms of this number.

Dear Jim,

I do this in some haste because if my head clears and I get less unsteady I'll do my missed morning therapy this afternoon. More lifting in getting poorer grade wood into the house did it.

On the way home I looked at the Shaw Juror search slips and thought about the little information on them. They have other values and importances than those we discussed. I think they disclose an FBI MO for hiding even within FBI, certainly to frustrate disclosure on searching the indices.

This is a tickler that existed a decade after there was any predictable use for it, so it is a better proof that the FBI regularly lies about the automatic destruction of all ticklers after a few days. It is not a recorded file, not from central records. The first sheet is a copy of the file folder, the only identification.

In turn this suggests that the FBI has a regular means outside its indices of storing and retrieving information filed in ticklers. Because without some indexing it would depend on recollection and because people do leave the FBI for various reasons I am led to believe that there is a special area where such things are kept filed by subject. Like they had the KEFs on the "Bulky Ramp."

As I turn the pages I'll have more on this. You will notice that the pages are hand numbered and there is no file or serial number on anything.

I'm ignoring the obliterated information related to the search. I presume there was nothing of any significance anyway. However, any FBIHQ search had to be on the assumption of its having N.O. info in its files.

I think these slips locate the ~~main~~ special unit the FBI had set up for Garrison watching, so it could lie and expect to get away with it. My recollection isn't at all certain but I have a clear recollection of the building to which any info was to be sent. I was there once at Criminal Div's request, the matter involving Stoner about which the FBI fabricated a conspiracy between us to defame it. I was asked to go there because of my interviews of soldiers of fortune who might have been involved in a neutrality act case. I think that the room to which I was directed and went was 821. This return is to 819. But it could have been a 9th floor. I recall the name of the attorney as Morris and it was Internal Security Division. I thought of DJ, but maybe it was of FBI. The people I saw looked like Hoover era FBI types. And, of course, they could have been either officed there or detailed there, meaning the FBI, in addition to DJ ISD. (ISD was merged back into Criminal later.) I'd have to go through fairly thick files to see if I noted the address, but I used it in 1996 when we got that defamatory record by consulting my record of the meeting and filing it to show the FBI lied and fabricated.

Seeing on this as a tickler and intended not to get regular filing is the page 2, which has a note, "File with the search slips etc," the etc not certain.

If Mark is interested he can check Doc #3 in the reading room or I can for him but I think it will be valueless today.

The searcher was in on something because the necessary identification of birth-date and place is never filled in.

George Lardner may have had contacts at that building then, inc. in ISD, so he might, if he were interested, be able to do some checking. He may also recall other tenants. I think it is the "Federal Triangle Building," but I'm not sure. I am that it is the SE corner. I think with a basement parking lot.

There is relevance in O420, of course, and to the lies about ticklers in general.

Shaw Jury Chosen; Trial Opens Today

By John P. MacKenzie
Washington Post Staff Writer

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 5—The final juror was chosen for the Clay Shaw trial today, setting the stage for Thursday's opening statement by District Attorney Jim Garrison charging a conspiracy to assassinate President John F. Kennedy.

After 14 wearisome days of screening more than 1200 potential jurors, the panel of 12 men and two alternates was completed with the approval of John R. Burllet, 46, president of a local crane service, as the second alternate.

Now the spotlight turns to Garrison, the crusading prosecutor with the imposing six-foot-six frame who has contended for two years that he can prove an assassination plot and discredit the Warren Commission's finding that Lee Harvey Oswald acted alone.

Garrison's opener will be scrutinized for clues as to how far he hopes to go in attempting to back up more wide-ranging charges that have implicated the Warren Commission, the Central Intelligence Agency and the Johnson Administration.

The opening statement will be watched with particular interest in Washington, where General Sessions Court Judge Charles W. Halleck, asked by Garrison to compel production of Kennedy autopsy photographs, is waiting for an indication that the pictures and X-rays are germane to Garrison's case.

Strictly speaking, Garrison could convict Shaw of conspiring with Lee Harvey Oswald and the late David Ferrie to murder the President without simultaneously "trying" the Warren Report. But few observers expect Garrison to confine his case to Louisiana, where he says the plot was hatched, and to avoid the events in Dallas.

Judge Halleck has challenged Garrison to support his written contention that he knows the pictures will help prove murder by crossfire rather than rifle shots from one direction as the Commission found.

Finally, Judge Halleck must decide whether the documents are protected from disclosure by a Federal documents statute and an agreement between the National Archives and the Kennedy family, which opposes "sensationalized" use of the gruesome autopsy material.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy (D-Mass.) was quoted today by Sen. Russell Long (D-La.) as saying that the Kennedy family opposes Garrison's request because it considers his case a "farce."

In Washington, Judge Halleck told newsmen that a hearing on Garrison's request had been postponed until Feb. 14 by agreement between Garrison's aides and the Justice Department, which is opposing the request.

The jurors, who are sequestered to shield them from publicity and any possibility of tampering, were photographed today at their motel in a session supervised and directed by Criminal Court Judge Edward A. Haggerty Jr.

Judge Haggerty has forbidden other photographs of the jurors and has threatened contempt citations if any unauthorized pictures are published.

During the lighthearted picture-taking meeting next to the motel's swimming pool, the judge relayed to photographers one juror's request for prints of the group pictures. The judge obliged photographers by telling the jurors, who did not seem to mind, to walk once around the pool while cameras snapped and ground away.

He also authorized a guided tour of the jury's quarters, including four motel rooms for sleeping, an exercise room filled with rented and purchased machines and barbells requested by a few jurors and a security room manned by police and sheriff's deputies around the clock.

A deputy is assigned to each sleeping room, three of which house three jurors each with the remaining five jurors in the fourth room.

Deputies said they are kept busy relaying messages from families through the judges and sheriff to the jurors and back again. Jurors are not permitted to talk directly with relatives, but one guard said the security room telephone rings "all night long."

Judge Haggerty said he would do almost anything to ease the jurors' confinement of six-to-eight weeks. But he drew the line at requests to go golfing and horseback riding.

Burllet, the last panel member, was approved after telling counsel that he once heard a lecture on international trade by Shaw, former member of the International Trade Mart here, and had discussed "Rush to Judgment," a book attacking the Warren Report with his family.
