The Sixth Floor Museum at Dealey Plaza and The USA Film Festival are proud to present a special screening of the classic documentary Four Days in November, a powerful filmed record of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. This 1964 documentary is described by allmovie.com as "the yardstick by which future documentaries on the subject would be measured." The film will be presented on Saturday, January 20, 2001 at 2:30 P.M.

Distinguished filmmaker Mel Stuart will discuss his poignant documentary following the screening. Mr. Stuart is a recipient of four Emmy Awards, a Peabody Award, and an Oscar nomination and has served for two years as president of the International Documentary Association.

Tickets are free and will be available at the AMC Glen Lakes Theaters the day of the show only, beginning at noon.
