Skolnick contends the lithographer, Thomas Arthur Vallee, "was a double for Lee Harvey Oswald,"

Attached to the suit were 11 documents, including three FBI reports pertaining to the assassination that were recently declassified by the National Archives.

One of the reports notes that Vallee, in a Jan. 14, 1954, appearance in Circuit Court, "revealed that he was very much against the present ad-ministration." The report also states that Judge Gordon B. Nash denied a defense motion to suppress the evidence on the concealed weapon charge and released Vallee on $100 bond.

The other report states that William Corley, a Chicago television news director at the time, assigned a newsman to trace the license plates, on Vallee's car. 3110RF-NY, but the newsman reported that "the FBI had placed a freeze on any information regarding this registration."

ment states that Judge Nash withdrew the finding of guilty on the concealed weapon charge at Vallee's subsequent court appearance and continued the case for a year.

Skolnick, who said the documents were sent to him by an undisclosed person, declared recent efforts to trace Vallee's whereabouts were unsuccessful.

The suit demands that the Warren Report be declared void.

Skolnick initiated an investigation of two Illinois Supreme. Court judges last year and charged them with improprieity in their business dealings with a Chicago bank. The justices later resigned.
