Skolnick sounds off to a dead mike

Legal researcher Sherman Skolnick is booked at Chicago Avenue District police station after crashing a live television program at WSPD (channel 41, 430 W. Grant St.) Skolnick sought to confront pacifist Benno Davis, who was being interviewed by Mary Jane O'Dell. He accuses Davis of being a phony radical in the hire of the CIA. The show was taken off the air for 40 minutes and Skolnick was charged with disorderly conduct.
