Dear Wayne,

I could not have gone to the Bermuda conference if I'd been invited, which I wasn't, and I know little about it. Perhaps I remember some of that little incorrectly, but I think I heard that you were involved.

I have just finished a book-length manuscript on Claudia Furiati's mis-titled RR Rifle. It is more Zero Rifle. What she attributes to Escalante is not in a single instance I recall factual and most is far out foolish. ✓

If I did not tell you, I'm spending my time trying to make the record for the future that is now possible for me. What I had originally titled Faking Kennedy: The Dark Side of Sy Hersh, retitled Hersh-It Journalism: Faking Kennedy, is being retyped. Remarkably dishonest book, his.

I think that with editing it could be published today but I've no agent and I'm not really in a position to seek one.

Sorry my typing can't be any better.

Sincerely,

Harold
