

E2

Book World 1/14/78

NATIONAL BEST SELLER
Over 50,000 copies in print

“And what disclosures!

Rich in detail, vivid...

Intriguing and convincingly argued. Other memoirs or accounts of that time will have to be measured against what Snepp, from his unique and highly informed vantage point, has produced.”

—KEVIN BUCKLEY, front page, N.Y. Times Book Review

“Important revelations.

One feels that the incredible history of the American role in Vietnam would have been forever poorer without Snepp's perspective.”

—Boston Globe

“By far the richest document yet produced on the American and South Vietnamese end game. Not only did he draw from his own diary and remembrances but he also combed the recollections of scores of other participants in depicting the disordered panorama of the defeat.”

—LAURENCE STERN, Washington Post

“Replete with important disclosures.”

Provides the most detailed account to date of the activities and operations of the CIA inside South Vietnam, as well as giving a first-hand account of high-level disagreements between Washington and Saigon over the use and integrity of intelligence.”—SEYMOUR M. HERSH, New York Times “Vigorous, gripping,

novelistic in its evocation of mood, setting, and character.”
—ROBERT KIRSCH, Los Angeles Times

“Headline news—

the detailed day-by-day reporting by a trained insider of the utter chaos which attended the American evacuation of Saigon... Those who read the book will shudder anew at the tragedy, confusion and gross incompetence Snapp lays bare.”
—John Barkham Reviews

Illustrated, $14.95
Now at your bookstore

RANDOM HOUSE