

N.C. Extremists Under FBI Watch

By JACKSONVILLE

WASHERINGTON, D.C. (AP)—The House has approved a bill to give the attorney general authority to suspend the citizenship of individuals who work for the Communist Party in a similar manner to that authorized for those who work for the Communist Party in the United States.

The bill would allow the attorney general to suspend the citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

The bill also provides for the suspension of citizenship of individuals who are members of the Communist Party and who are working for the party in the United States.

of course, on several occasions national black organizations outside of Louisiana. Their members too, are capable of a suicidal attack upon the inaugural celebrants, say our

of course, on several occasions national black organizations outside of Louisiana. Their members too, are capable of a suicidal attack upon the inaugural celebrants, say our