

SOCIETY OF PROFESSIONAL JOURNALISTS

FOUNDED
IN 1909
AS SIGMA DELTA CHI

Dear Member:

Your SPJ dues payment has been received and processed—thank you! Your SPJ membership card, which confirms your membership in the nation's largest journalism organization, is enclosed. If you need a receipt for tax purposes, headquarters will provide one upon request.

Each year of your continued involvement in SPJ promises to be more exciting than the year before. You can broaden your journalistic horizons and sharpen your skills by attending SPJ professional development workshops across the country. Topics of future workshops include advanced writing, front-line editing, newsroom management, computer-assisted journalism, and libel and privacy.

Your membership makes a difference to the thousands of journalists denied access to records each year. SPJ is able to speak for the profession on First Amendment and freedom of information issues only because it has strength in numbers.

SPJ's initiatives like Project Sunshine and the mass communication education task force are examples of how the Society takes a leading role in shaping journalism.

The information and phone numbers on the back of this letter will help you take advantage of the member services the Society has to offer. If you are interested in taking full advantage of your membership by becoming involved on the local level, please find your local chapter contact information on the accompanying sheet.

If you have any questions or suggestions, please feel free to call or write me. With your help we can continue to improve the Society.

Thanks again for your membership.

Sincerely,

Gregory A. Christopher
