

T-P 2-29-68

THE LYONS DEN

Goldberg Complimented

By LEONARD LYONS
NEW YORK — During their White House conference, U... ant urged LBJ to persuade Arthur Goldberg to stay at the post, deeming him "irre-able." . . . At LBJ's re-Clark Clifford, although firm, participated in... at the State Dept. re... Tom Clark, who... on the Supreme... it in with the Court... to ease the caler... y Goldwater said... t the Grenouille... ed running."

golf game—18." . . . Rubinstein never eats before a concert: "It's like a sports event. I'd break the back of any man I pounded as hard as I do the piano in one concert."

Aram Khachaturian, the Soviet composer, was at the supper party, but I couldn't persuade him to hear the rock 'n' roll at Arthur.

* * *
John Sparrow, master of Oxford's All Souls College, is here to defend the Warren Commission Report on TV . . . Newscaster Heywood Hale Broun will do a feature on Nick Colosi, the captain at the Copa who'll try out for a National League umpire's job next month . . . Cecil Brown is making a survey of the TV industry in behalf of the Encyclopaedia Britannica, for its possible entry into the TV field.

* * *