Tate Dumped by Party In Philadelphia Race

(AP) —The Democratic Policy nomination. Committee today dumped Smith said the vote was Mayor James Tate and slated "nearly unanimous," that former City Controller Alexonly four or five supported ander Hemphill as the organization's nominee for Mayor in the said that when a motion was made to give Hemphill unanimous backing, the May primary election.

The choice climaxed a continuing fight between Francis Smith, chairman of the Democratic City Committee, and Tate, who has filed for a second 4 year term and declared ing him as Michael Byrne, rephe will run and win either with or without organization Clark on the Policy Commitbacking.

Policy Committee meeting ranks as the Party prepared to within a week to announce the defend its 12-year hold on city selection of Hemphill, who re- government against the chalsigned in January as City Con-lenge of Republican Arlen

PHILADELPHIA, March 11 troller to seek the mayoralty

"only two were opposed." He identified the two as U.S. Rep. William A. Barrett, and Wendell Young, president of the Retail Clerks Union.

Barrett, however, said there was a third dissenter, identifyresenting U.S. Sen. Joseph S. tee. Byrne's action pointed up Smith came out of the third the cleavage in Democratic Specter.

The 37-year-old Specter, the city's District Attorney, is unopposed for the GOP nomination. He was an associate counsel for the Warren Committee in its investigation of the assassination of President Kennedy. He was a Democrat, but switched parties two years ago to win the District Attorney's office.