inel Aide Fired as Spy Of Germans By John M. Goshko

Washington Post Staff Writer

A political scientist employed by the Atlantic Council, a prestigious private organization for the study of foreign policy, has been fired after admitting that he was a paid spy for East Ger-

James Frederick Sattler, who had worked as a consultant on various council study projects since 1972, was discharged last Friday after the Justice Department notified the council of his activities.

On March 23, Sattler registered with the Justice Department as a foreign agent. In his registration state-ment, he admitted that he had been passing informa-tion to East German intelligence agencies since 1967 and, for his services, had been paid approximately $15,000 and given "an honor-decoration" from the East German Ministry of State Security.

Sattler could not be reached for comment, and it was not immediately clear why he had voluntarily supplied detailed information about activities that could

See SATTLER, A16, Col. 4

SATTLER, From A1

expose him to prosecution under # federal ?; espionage laws.

Justice Department sources said only that Satt-ler had registered after becoming aware that he was the object of an FBI investigation. The sources added that the department has described not to prosecute Sattler because of the unavilability of key witnesses.

In his registration statement, Sattler, 37, admitted that he was recruited in 1967 by an individual named "Rolf" who he later learned. "Rolf," who he later learned was an East German official was ar East German official connected with "the com-bined intelligence services of the Warsaw Treaty Or-ganization." Sattler gaid he was told to secure employ-ment "in a position with secess to information of value to the Warsaw Treaty."

... From 1967 through 1975, he added, "I transferred to

b. From 1867, through 1975, he added, "I transferred to my principals in East Berlin information and documents which I received from the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and from individuals in institutions and government agencies in West Germany, the United States, Britain, Canada and France.

His statement left unclear whether any of the adocuments was relassified on contained informations that would be regarded as important in intelligence circles. Atlantic Bouncil officials said their files forbid the intelligence circles that access to classified materials in their studies, and assessed that Sattler would he for the balances to classified documents through he for the studies of the same through he for the same classified documents through the formation and the same classified documents through the same c carried by him to Berlin

During my jasté Bast érmany in Nav Past crimally in November 1972, he said was advised to attempt to obtain a position in the United States, position in the Position I was advised into the Internation I was factured in the Internation I was factured in East Germany until my possible return in early 1976."

The Atlantic Council, founded by former Secretary of State Christian Herter in 1961, seeks to solve foreign policy problems by fisuing position papers, conducting seminars and publishing a monthly news bulletin and a quarter by journal. It also does occa-

news bulletin and a quarter ly journal. It also does occasional studies or contract infrom departments of the federal government

Afthough it has no officials government connection, the membership of its board reads like a who's who of the so-caled "Eastern foreign policy establishment"
Secretary of State Henry A Kissinger is a board member, and the board chairman
the former Treasury Secretary Henry H. Fowler

Francis O. Wifcor, the douncil's secretary general said that Sattler had worked on a number of council studies including problems of tes including problems of European force reductions and East-West trade He added that "Sattler's work had been very objective, and the seemed a very knowl edgeable and capable stu edgeable and capanie stu-dent of international af-fairs ...
Wilcon was able to pre-vide dniy sketchy details of Sattler's background but Sattler's background but said he had studied in Gersaid he had studied in Germany and had sheen lecturer in political science at surjous Ganadian suniversities.

Whiteen also said that Saitler's job with the council was expiringly and he was hooking for a new one Ha to the said seen