After Israel's Commando Raid, Lebanon Conducts a Spy Hunt

Washington Post Staff Writer

found in a fishing boat off secret the details of who plans the Lebanese coast and a Beland carries out their covert gian traveler are part of the mixed bag of suspects Leba Press Speculation nese and Palestinian authorities have turned up in their lation in the press here that hunt for secret agents who Gen. Aharon Variv, the former helped to set up Tuesday's Ishead of Israeli military intelligence who retired from the hunt, which is continuing, has viser to Prime Minister Golda Guard also claimed credit for hills above Beirut.

Reported to police produced little information Meir, is head of the campaign some bank holdups in Leban. about the Israeli mission. Most of the 20 or so persons rounded up in the past five days have been released after questioning.

Foreign residents of Beirut say they face new and deep suspicion, and there are calls from the Arabic press and some politicians for a drastic tightening of security over Beirut, the Middle East's most Israeli agents also carried open city.

the raid has also reinforced Zahrani, near the port of Arab frustration over the Sidon, also underscored the strength of Israel's espionage Arab perception of the effinetwork, which is credited clency of the Israeli secret with having assassinated at forces.

least half dozen Arab militants here and in Europe selves, the Palestinians were since Israel declared "war on evidently attempting to reterroristm" following the kill-awaken memories of the Laing of Israeli Olympic ath-von affair of 1954, when

The Israelis have been per-haps even more effective than lations with the West. detailed accounts of the move-lations with the West. BEIRUT, April 15—French clandestine Arab groups like Israeli Denial restaurant owner, three men Black September in keeping

There has been much specuarmy after the Munich killings First signs are that the spy to become special security adto hit Arab operatives.

functional equivalent to the Central Intelligence Agency, is assigned to carry out espionage.

The Palestinian charge that out Saturday's raid on the The stunning efficiency of American-owned refinery at letes during an Arab guer-Israeli agents fire-bombed rilla raid in Munich last Sep-American and British cul-tember.

Israel denied Saturday that it was behind the attack on the owners of the seaside hother refinery and the action tels where the men stayed that remained a mystery.

A claim of credit by the bills. little-known Lebanese Revolutionary Guard was repudiated ers are attracting in a city in letter from the Lebanese that makes its living from Socialist Revolutionary Movement.

sons arrested for interrogation Recent press surveys have over the elaborate advance estimated that at least 30 per preparations for Tuesday's Is cent of Lebanon's 2.2 million leased today.

who owns a restaurant, a Brit-nearly 60,000 Europeans. ish woman, two French men Tourist visas are issued at and a French woman, and three the airport, and foreigners fishermen picked up off the have been able to establish Lebanese coast.

The Palestinians are report-red tape. edly still holding a French restauranteur who lives near the apartment buildings where three Palestinian leaders were shot to death. Small arms and a walkie-talkie were reportedly points up the difficulty Lebfound in the apartment of the Frenchman.

Unpaid Bills

The Beirut press has given operations.

ments of six men who posed as tourists to pave the way for the attack. Some of the reports have featured complaints from they left without paying their

The suspicion that foreigntourism and commercial servent.

According to some news of four young Europeans who agencies, the Revolutionary were living in a cave in the

Reported to police by area But there is no confirmation that Yariv, a well-known public flagure, has taken on such a role: lottionary Guards, its armed three men and a woman were Israel's Mossad Bureau. branch, in 1969. cleared of that charge, but then arrested for possessing said that the last of eight persons arrested for intervent.

raeli commando attack was re-population is composed of foreigners. The majority of them Those questioned by the Leb- are Arabs, but there are about anese included a Lebanese Jew 15,000 Americans in Beirut and residence with a minimum of Privately, some Lebanese authorities are arguing that the ease with which the 1s-raelis mounted their attack anon has in exercising control over the movement of individual Arab groups that might use Lebanon as base for foreign