Dear Harold:

Thanks for your letter and the action taken with the Secret Service concerning the Dal Tex photographer. I don't believe I'll do anything about it with Johnson and the Archives either.

My plans have changed for September 16. I'm going on a West Coast trip. Part of a new consulting engagement I've undertaken. So I will have to postpone seeing you until next time.

Regards,

Dick

Dear Dick,

Rowley's reply to my inquiry about the man in the De-Tax Bldg is that it was Zapruder. This could be the case, for we do know that McCormick took Scirels in to see him and they thereafter left together.

If it is not true, I do not see how we can now go any further.

Have a good trip, and my best to all you see.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
