

"What good would it be to The vehicle, with Alabama Il-cense plates, was seen roaring off from the Mempli's rooming house after the murder and was take a job for just two or three, weeks? I'd better, wait until J. get back." "I thought this was, strauge, notise after the murder and was found abandoned the pext day in Atlanta. Peter Cherpes, owner of a minimum from the start of a chere Gall was staying when he Fought the Mustang, and the APRIL sald Lau, "because when Galt

first applied to take the course he said he was desperate to ge and loft," state of the second And left."

Lau said he had last heard from Galt by telephone about a week after -his graduation, where the photo obtained by the FBI had been taken.

"He was a nice fellow with a nice personality, and he was a pretty good pupil," said Lau. "He seemed very intelligent and had the ability to master. the course. I never heard him say anything about Negroes." Lau said Gait, who had a Southern, accent, had pald, a $220 registration fee for the course and gave as references.

Long Beach, Cal., said Galt had attended classes there from mil-December to last Feb. 12.

December to last Feb. 12. Arvidson said he was particu-larly struck by the large amounts of money Galt carried with him. "He seemed to be, a Southern gentleman in a tly dressed. Kathy Norton, 21, a Hance in Structor, said Galt told her he owned a restaurant of bar on the Mexican coast. The FBI said Galt had clocked 19,000 miles in the Mustang on trips to Mexico, Los Argeles, New Orleans, Memphis, and Birmingham, where the purchased a 30.06 rille on or about March 30. The weapon was found - outside - the . Memphis rooming house after the nurder. Morlean, consular 4, 2 official in Mempharicalit that about in the G bail obtained that country. is sh

M Gener istus Cherres 11 mungher

1 posts ) 1111125

denicted him. An Atlanth taxicab driver, fin sketch of the assessmation ere et as thet of a man he. 11.610 tanta's hipp dishik on it

FBI photo might be one of Galt, but added: "I don't think so." Qiber_wilnesses who had known Galt during the six weeks in clayed at the rooming house

al o voiced doubts that the photo-

had identified '5 inevious