FOREWORD

WITH LIBERTY AND JUSTICE FOR ALL

An identifying characteristic of the super-state is its readiness to conceal from the people facts which might make them restless. In order to maintain power its officials must keep the populace believing that it is living in the best of all possible worlds.

Consequently, those in control of the governmental machinery sometimes find it necessary to re-write history as fast as it happens. The truth becomes not what occurred but what they announce has occurred. Reality becomes just another government-controlled commodity.

If the official myth to be presented is particularly unbelievable it may be necessary to have honorable men study it and announce that they have found it to be true.¹ This is not really as difficult as it sounds because there is nothing to which honorable men joined in an honorable cause will not stoop in the name of duty. As a general rule of thumb, the more unbeliev-

1. In 1939, after having invaded and conquered western Poland because of alleged Polish atrocities committed against German individuals, the German government appointed a committee to make a careful study to determine the facts with regard to the claimed Polish misconduct. The final printed report of the study contained much documentary evidence, including not only photographs, affidavits and countless medical certificates but an authenticated quotation from the year 1898 to the effect that barbarous cruelty was one of the vices of the Polish people. The report confirmed that the Poles indeed had committed atrocities against Germans and it indicated that things would have been even worse were it not for the timely arrival on Polish territory of the German rescuers. The conclusions of this painstaking study by a government-appointed committee meant that Adolf Hitler would not have to withdraw his armies and apologize to Poland. Dear Ted:

Thank you for your warm and encouraging letter. I really appreciate the help you have been giving me with regard to the marketing of "A Farewell to Justice".

And thank you also for the latest copy of your newsletter which, as usual, was extremely interesting.

I saw your ad for the Warren Commission's January 22nd and 27th Executive transcripts which Wiseberg obtained. Somebody ought to build a statue to that man for the hard and detailed work he has done.

In any case, I would like to have a copy of it and enclose my check for $12.40.

Best regards,

Enclosure
