I worked quite a bit yesterday, as you'll see after I read and correct, and getinning at my usual early hour this morning, taking a little time for the paper and to take —il to lunch and at after 4:30 I'm still at it. You may not agree with what I've taken the time to write McGrory but I enclose that anyway.

You should have gotten what I(ve written to and about "tone and will get more.

I'm excitedly into too much an soon I'll knock off for the day and read or take in the news.

We both want to thank you both for the beautiful valentine greeting which  $I^*_{\ m}$  sure you know we reciprocate.

Too many things get me started on too many things.

What I sent Wrone asking him to make a copy for you, which he'll do, he told me today he'd started to read and enjoys it. That pleases me. He says what my friend Joe Nylon says, that it should be a book. I told him not for me to do and there are too many things I hope to live to be able to do that are more important.

here, if I had that kind of self-concept I'd have accepted toe's offer to pay for publishing my memoirs, as he calle them.

I'd appreciate you opinion in what I've suggested re Stone and Carrison because, it happens, without having read my letter to Stone, Wrone has the same kind of ifiea. As he readsthat letter he'lk note topics from his knowledge of Garrison, about whom he knows a bit.

Stone's people, already having begun casting, I was told is reported in a clipping I'll get, have selected their Garrison. I think it is that clipping rather than the friend who told me, that says again that it will be nostly Garrison.

Which makes me wonder not about why he was not in touch with me but why he is paying money to others for rights he does not have to buy and why he is employing some who can really be called nefarious characters, like Gerry Tatrick memning, who visited me recently. I think I sent you a copy of a meo on that.

My friend and FOIA lawyer, Jim Lesar, agrees he has not been in touch with me for reasons including what those who do not agree with me have told him about me.

Thanks and best to you all,
