JFK : The Director's Cut

Color 206 min.

Retail $24.98 per Double Cassette

 Y #12614
JFK:
THE DIRECTOR'S
CUT

Contains 17 minutes of footage not included in the original release of JFK.

Scene featuring a wealthy Texas oilman ( no names, please) whom Garrison believed was one of Oswald's "handlers".

Speculation about the role of the Cabell brothers in the assassination.

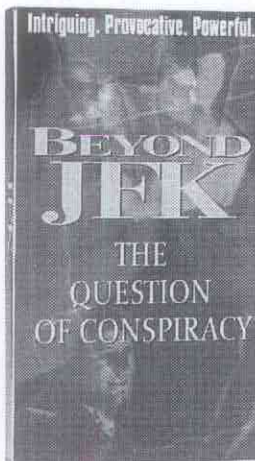

The reported sighting of Oswald or a "double" at the Downtown Lincoln/Mercury showroom

The sighting of Oswald, David Ferrie, and Clay Shaw in Clinton, Louisiana at a black voter registration drive.

Garrison appearance on a "famous late night talk show" with the tramp photographs.

A scene in which Garrison claimed to have been "set up" in an alleged homosexual encounter in a Los Angeles airport men's room.

Disastrous court testimony from a last minute witness, who was so discredited, Garrison believed him to be a "ringer" for the other side.

 BEYOND JFK:
THE QUESTION
OF CONSPIRACY

Y #35563

Beyond JFK: The Question of Conspiracy

Color/Approx. 90 min.

Retail - $19.98

Produced for Oliver Stone by Danny Schecter and Rory O'Connor.

Last known interview with the late Jim Garrison.

Interviews with, among others, Jean Hill and Ed Hoffman.

Interview with LBJ's mistress Madeleine Brown.

The 1969 Walter Cronkite interview with Johnson in which Johnson claimed "there could've been a conspiracy there", and was, as the story goes, later edited from the interview at Johnson's request.

Rare footage attorney Dean Andrews at a press conference. This scene was transposed in the original JFK, but is repeated in the Director's Cut almost verbatim.
