African gold to Dokoure

Guinea's Chelkh Dokoure was awarded $6,000 and the golden prize for "Blanc d'ebene" at the 6th African Film Festival in Khribka, Morocco (April 16-20). The jury, headed by Lebanese filmmaker Bor-han Aloule, awarded the $4,000 silver prize to Fadel Goralebe's "Chich Khan" (Tunisia). Third prize and $3,000 went to Nacer Khmeir, also from Tunisia, for "Le collier perdu de la colombe."

Kids' fest set

The 3rd Cairo Children's International Film Festival will take place in the Egyptian capital from Sept.5-12. The event is organized by Cairo International Film Festival in collaboration with the General Union of Arab Artists, both headed by Saad Eldin Wahba

'Partner' shooting

Egyptian director Wahld Mekhelmar, is currently shooting his second film "El Sherik" (The Partner). Scripted by Mohamed el Awadl, the film is the first production by Yousri el Achamaoul. Starring Mahmoud Hemelda, Lucy and Mahmoud el Guindy, the story revolves around an Egyptian civil servant who comes back from Kuwait after the Iraqi invasion.

Social work

In her book on "Motion Pictures and Social Changes in Latin America," Ju-llanne Burton examined the negative consequences resulting from the steady consequences resulting from the steady shutdown of film houses throughout the region and rising boxoffice prices, which are beyond workers' means. The author has been noted for her research on film industry development and the social and economic repercussions in south-of-thefirmed Mexican participation in upcoming international film festivals in Hong Kong, Uruguay, Baltimore; the film styles festival in San Diego; the Spanish film fests in Nimes, Munich, Los Angeles; and the summer film fest at the Univerity of Hawaii. Mexico will also be present at the film schools festival in Tel Aviv.
