

The Washington Post

1150 15TH STREET, N. W.

WASHINGTON, D. C. 20071

(202) 334-6000

July 3, 1991

Dear Harold,

This is FYI and also because you might want to respond to Stone's blather. I'm fairly sure the Times-Picayune would print what you have to say if u keep it to about the same length. I thought of responding myself but then it occurred to me that might not be as effective. The peg for you might be Stone's assertion that the script was "printed."

I'm going to send a response to your recent letter one of these days. Needless to say, I disagree heartily with much of it. Thanks for the Roseau correspondence.

Sincerely,

Royl
P.S. Garrison's phone was "tapped," Stone says. Is he buying @'s paranoia?

Stone responds to criticism of his 'JFK' movie

New Orleans

Rosemary James' attack on my forthcoming film "JFK" (Letters, June 20) is riddled with factual errors and reveals a mind-set hopelessly stuck in the late 1960s.

Instead of focusing on the key issue about the John F. Kennedy assassination that confronts America today — the government's continuing cover-up of the truth — James gets bogged down in rehashing Jim Garrison's prosecution of Clay Shaw.

James complains that Shaw was prosecuted with a "fraudulent case" and that Garrison's witnesses were "lunatic publicity hounds." The truth is that the prosecution was sabotaged by the federal government from day one.

Every one of Garrison's attempts to extradite key witnesses from other states was rejected. His requests for important evidence such as X-rays and photos of the president's autopsy and tax records and intelligence files on Lee Harvey Oswald were denied.

His office phones were tapped, and he and his staff were followed everywhere by FBI agents. Key witnesses were bribed or died under mysterious circumstances. And all the district attorney's files were stolen and turned over to Shaw's defense counsel before the trial began.

Who, then, did not receive a fair trial — Shaw or the state?

Sadly, James seems unable to grasp that "JFK" is not the Jim Garrison story or the Clay Shaw story. It is the film exploring who killed Kennedy and why.

James incorrectly asserted that I bought "Jim Garrison's fictional script," implying that "JFK" merely regurgitates Garrison's 1969 investigation. The truth is that the script for "JFK" was written by me along with Zachary Sklar. It is based on Garrison's book "On the Trail of the Assassins," Jim Marrs' book "Crossfire" and the separate investigations of nearly a dozen researchers and scholars.

It incorporates a great deal of information that was not known in 1969 when Clay Shaw was tried, including the fact that Shaw was employed by the CIA.

James' misunderstandings about the script stem from her reliance on an inaccurate account published in The Washington Post by George Lardner, whom James described as a "respected journalist." Respected by whom?

Lardner's diatribe against a pirated early draft of "JFK" broke two cardinal rules of responsible journalism: 1. Be fair and let both sides have their say; 2. Review the complete film, not an early draft of the script.

It did not take any "spies," as James stated in her cloak-and-dagger version of reality, to figure out that I considered Lardner's "review" irresponsible. The Washington Post published my lengthy point-by-point refutation of Lardner's errors.

It is particularly irksome that James misquoted me as saying, "The truth is not important." This is a preposterous out-of-context statement, and I have no idea where she came up with it. While I am a dramatic filmmaker and do not purport to be a documentarian, the reason I am making "JFK" is that I want the truth about an event that profoundly changed all our lives to finally come out.

If the government had not lied from the beginning, there would be little need for a film like "JFK." Unfortunately, the government has yet to release crucial evidence in its possession, and we must all try to get to the bottom of the assassination as best we can.

Rosemary James said she believes there was a conspiracy. But what is she doing to further our knowledge? Taking potshots at Garrison and me, calling New Orleans judges and a grand jury of citizens "dupes" and trotting out the timeworn, discredited "Mafia-did-it" theory, this time with the novel twist that Meyer Lansky was running the operation. I'd love to hear her explanation of how Lansky got the Warren Commission and the FBI to cover up for him.

Perhaps James' most peculiar fear is that "JFK" could subject New Orleans to "national ridicule." On the contrary, I believe most Americans will view New Orleans favorably as the one city in the country that had a district attorney, judges and grand jurors with the guts to stand and fight for the truth about President Kennedy's murder.

Oliver Stone

And THE BEAT GOES ON.

Stone's plans for Garrison movie are offensive

New Orleans

Director Oliver Stone's behavior since purchasing Jim Garrison's fictional script about the John F. Kennedy assassination is reprehensible.

Stone, in fact, exemplifies the entire coterie of self-aggrandizing acolytes who have hung onto the former district attorney's coat-tails since Garrison announced he had "solved" all the mysteries surrounding the presidential assassination.

That was back in 1967 and 1968, when Garrison was fabricating a new phony "conspiracy" to kill the president almost daily, including the one that ruined an innocent man's life. I know for a fact that Garrison deliberately proceeded with a fraudulent case against Clay Shaw.

He knew he had nothing, his key assistants — Jim Alcock, Al Oser and John Volz — knew he had nothing and yet proceeded in the most Machiavellian fashion to abuse the power entrusted to them.

In the style of the Dreyfus case of the last century, they deliberately selected a scapegoat for purposes totally political, totally petty, and then set about destroying one of the most creative business and cultural leaders this city has ever produced.

I know for a fact that Garrison told lies then, starting at his first big news conference on the subject. He lied to the media at large by saying he'd never been given an opportunity to comment on the New Orleans States-Item story revealing his investigation before the story was printed. And that was only the beginning.

The lies were exploded when, during a six-week trial, assorted lunatic publicity hounds — Garrison's witnesses — were exposed for what they were. The jury returned after only 50 minutes with a verdict of not guilty.

The jury was polled by the media later. Many of the jurors believed as I do that there was a conspiracy, that Lee Harvey Oswald did not act alone. They simply did not believe, nor did any thinking person, that Garrison and his boys had answered any questions.

In response to the June 15 letter by Jay Albarado, member of the Garrison grand jury, yes, thinking New Orleanians do believe the grand jury was duped by Garrison. We believe Garrison exerted total control over the grand jury during the period of Clay Shaw's persecution.

With regard to the three-judge panel, yes, we believe they acted as rubber stamps for Garrison, who had originally indicted Mr. Shaw with a bill of information. We believe they acquiesced to Garrison, who had considerable political swat before the trial, because they feared he would oppose them for re-election.

Now comes a gullible from La-La Land with a $60 million budget who wants to regurgitate all of that garbage.

Many of us who call New Orleans home are offended by the fact that, once again, our city is about to be propelled into the limelight as a subject of national ridicule. We are offended by Stone's comments, such as, "The truth is not important." I prefer to believe "the truth shall set ye free."

Recently, George Lardner, a respected journalist for The Washington Post who reported on Garrison's "theories" in the '60s, obtained a sub rosa copy of Stone's script for the movie and revealed its flaws in two pages of newspaper. Spies in the Stone camp report that he was livid. His public comments were straight out of the 1960s Garrison book: He described Lardner as a government agent in reporter's disguise.

Most of all, we are offended that serious money is being wasted giving credence to Jim Garrison's falsely engineered "conspiracy" case, which probably prevented serious inquiries by reasonable people into questions raised by the Warren Commission's incompetent effort.

There are reasonable theories about how the assassination was carried out, theories involving underworld figures like the late Meyer Lansky. Garrison always refused to investigate any leads that pointed in those directions. Reporters who made such suggestions were threatened personally with grand jury inquisition and indictment.

It makes you wonder what Garrison and his acolytes then and now really are about. Creating smoke screens, perhaps?

Rosemary James

Rosemary James was one of three New Orleans States-Item reporters who broke the Garrison investigation to the public, and then reported the subsequent events in both print and television media.

Carnival of

DATE: THURSDAY June 27, 1991
 PAGE: B6
 SECTION: METRO

EDITION: THIRD
 LENGTH: Medium

STONE RESPONDS TO CRITICISM OF HIS 'JFK' MOVIE

New Orleans

Rosemary James' attack on my forthcoming film 'JFK' (Letters, June 15) is riddled with factual errors and reveals a mind-set hopelessly stuck in the late 1960s.

Instead of focusing on the key issue about the John F. Kennedy assassination that confronts America today - the government's continuing cover-up of the truth - James gets bogged down in rehashing Jim Garrison's prosecution of Clay Shaw.

James complains that Shaw was prosecuted with a "fraudulent case" and that Garrison's witnesses were "lunatic publicity hounds." The truth is that the prosecution was sabotaged by the federal government from day one.

Every one of Garrison's attempts to extradite key witnesses from other states was rejected. His requests for important evidence such as X-rays and photos of the president's autopsy and tax records and intelligence files on Lee Harvey Oswald were denied.

His office phones were tapped, and he and his staff were followed everywhere by FBI agents. Key witnesses were bribed or died under mysterious circumstances. And all the district attorney's files were stolen and turned over to Shaw's defense counsel before the trial began.

Who, then, did not receive a fair trial - Shaw or the state?

Sadly, James seems unable to grasp that 'JFK' is not the Jim Garrison story or the Clay Shaw story. It is the film exploring who killed Kennedy and why.

James incorrectly asserted that I bought "Jim Garrison's fictional script," implying that 'JFK' merely regurgitates Garrison's 1969 investigation. The truth is that the script for 'JFK' was written by me along with Zachary Sklar. It is based on Garrison's book "On the Trail of the Assassins," Jim Marrs' book "Crossfire" and the separate investigations of nearly a dozen researchers and scholars.

It incorporates a great deal of information that was not known in 1969 when Clay Shaw was tried, including the fact that Shaw was employed by the CIA.

James' misunderstandings about the script stem from her reliance on an inaccurate account published in The Washington Post by George Lardner, whom James described as a "respected journalist." Respected by whom?

Lardner's diatribe against a pirated early draft of 'JFK' broke two cardinal rules of responsible journalism: 1. Be fair and let both sides have their say; 2. Review the complete file, not an early draft of the script.

It did not take any "spies," as James stated in her cloak-and-dagger version of reality, to figure out that I considered Lardner's "review" irresponsible. The Washington Post published my lengthy point-by-point refutation of Lardner's errors.

It is particularly irksome that James misquoted me as saying, "The truth is not important." This is a preposterous out-of-context statement, and I have no idea where she came up with it. While I as a dramatic filmmaker and do not purport to be a documentarian, the reason I am making 'JFK' is that I want the truth about an event that profoundly changed all our lives to finally come out.

If the government had not lied from the beginning, there would be little need for a film like 'JFK.' Unfortunately, the government has yet to release crucial evidence in its possession, and we must all try to get to the bottom of the assassination as best we can.

Rosemary James said she believes there was a conspiracy. But what is she doing to further our knowledge? Taking potshots at Garrison and me, calling New Orleans judges and a grand jury of citizens "dupes" and trotting out the timeworn, discredited "Mafia-did-it" theory, this time with the novel twist that Meyer Lansky was running the operation. I'd love to hear her explanation of how Lansky got the Warren Commission and the FBI to cover up for him.

RANK 3 OF 96, PAGE 4 OF 4, DB NO1, DOCUMENT 178193

Perhaps James' most peculiar fear is that 'JFK' could subject New Orleans to "national ridicule." On the contrary, I believe most Americans will view New Orleans favorably as the one city in the country that had a district attorney, judges and grand jurors with the guts to stand and fight for the truth about President Kennedy's murder.

©OliverStone

TYPE: LETTERS
 TAG: 9106270132
 END OF DOCUMENT.

DATE: THURSDAY June 20, 1991
PAGE: B6
SECTION: METRO

EDITION: THIRD
LENGTH: Medium

STONE'S PLANS FOR GARRISON MOVIE ARE OFFENSIVE

New Orleans

Director=Oliver=Stone's behavior since purchasing Jim Garrison's fictional script about the John F. Kennedy assassination is reprehensible.

Stone, in fact, exemplifies the entire coterie of self-aggrandizing acolytes who have hung onto the former district attorney's coattails since Garrison announced he had "solved" all the mysteries surrounding the presidential assassination.

That was back in 1967 and 1968, when Garrison was fabricating a new phony "conspiracy" to kill the president almost daily, including the one that ruined an innocent man's life. I know for a fact that Garrison deliberately proceeded with a fraudulent case against Clay Shaw.

He knew he had nothing, his key assistants - Jim Alcock, Al Oser and John Volz - knew he had nothing and yet proceeded in the most Machiavellian fashion to abuse the power entrusted to them.

RANK 7 OF 96, PAGE 2 OF 4, DB NO1, DOCUMENT 171131

In the style of the Dreyfus case of the last century, they deliberately selected a scapegoat for purposes totally political, totally petty, and then set about destroying one of the most creative business and cultural leaders this city has ever produced.

I know for a fact that Garrison told lies then, starting at his first big news conference on the subject. He lied to the media at large by saying he'd never been given an opportunity to comment on the New Orleans States-Item story revealing his investigation before the story was printed. And that was only the beginning.

The lies were exploded when, during a six-week trial, assorted lunatic publicity hounds - Garrison's witnesses - were exposed for what they were. The jury returned after only 50 minutes with a verdict of not guilty.

The jury was polled by the media later. Many of the jurors believed as I do that there was a conspiracy, that Lee Harvey Oswald did not act alone. They simply did not believe, nor did any thinking person, that Garrison and his boys had answered any questions.

In response to the June 15 letter by Jay Albarado, member of the Garrison grand jury, yes, thinking New Orleanians do believe the grand jury was duped by Garrison. We believe Garrison exerted total control over the grand jury during the period of Clay Shaw's persecution.

With regard to the three-judge panel, yes, we believe they acted as rubber stamps for Garrison, who had originally indicted Mr. Shaw with a bill of information. We believe they acquiesced to Garrison, who had considerable political swat before the trial, because they feared he would oppose them for re-election.

RANK 7 OF 96, PAGE 3 OF 4, DB NO1, DOCUMENT 171131

Now comes a gullible froa La-La Land with a $60 million budget who wants to regurgitate all of that garbage.

Many of us who call New Orleans home are offended by the fact that, once again, our city is about to be propelled into the limelight as a subject of national ridicule. We are offended by Stone's comments, such as, "The truth is not important." I prefer to believe "the truth shall set ye free."

Recently, George Lardner, a respected journalist for The Washington Post who reported on Garrison's "theories" in the '60s, obtained a sub rosa copy of Stone's script for the movie and revealed its flaws in two pages of newsprint. Spies in the Stone camp report that he was livid. His public comments were straight out of the 1960s Garrison book: He described Lardner as a government agent in reporter's disguise.

Most of all, we are offended that serious money is being wasted giving credence to Jim Garrison's falsely engineered "conspiracy" case, which probably prevented serious inquiries by reasonable people into questions raised by the Warren Commission's incompetent effort.

There are reasonable theories about how the assassination was carried out, theories involving underworld figures like the late Meyer Lansky. Garrison always refused to investigate any leads that pointed in those directions. Reporters who made such suggestions were threatened personally with grand jury inquisition and indictment.

RANK 7 OF 96, PAGE 4 OF 4, DB NO1, DOCUMENT 171131

It makes you wonder what Garrison and his acolytes then and now really are about. Creating smoke screens, perhaps?

Rosemary James

Rosemary James was one of three New Orleans States-Item reporters who broke the Garrison investigation to the public, and then reported the subsequent events in both print and television media.

TYPE: LETTERS
TAG: 9106200045
END OF DOCUMENT.