"I think "why" is a very important question. I think that people always get off the track with "who" amd "how". Of course "who" and "how" are flascinating dramatically, but "why" Kennedy was killed is an essential question, and the movee tries to deal with that."

The Dallas Morning News