

"Unofficially, I hear that many people inside the government--and that includes military intelligence and the Central Intelligence Agency--are very happy that this movie is being made. There is a younger generation of people that want some element of the truth to come out"

The Dallas Morning News